Section 2

The Leonardo da Vinci Agency define those eligible to participate in this trainer exchange project as:

   'those involved in the design, delivery or implementation of training or careers guidance'

Exchanges target the following categories of participant, vocational trainers, human resource managers, careers guidance counsellors; or language training specialists in business or vocational training.

It is important that those participating in the Innovation in Cultural Heritage Interpretation (ICHI) project are in a position to disseminate the information and skills gained to improve the training available in Scotland.

How would you be able to do this? (For example, are you involved in delivering training, in developing training plans or in the development of modules of curriculum)

How does your chosen exchange programme fit with your own or your organisation's training plans?
