
Contents

SPECIAL ISSUE: (RE)CREATING PUBLIC SPHERE, CIVIC CULTURE AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT: PUBLIC SERVICE MEDIA
VS. ONLINE SOCIAL NETWORKS

Guest Editors: Associate Professor Petros Iosifidis and Professor Michalis Meimaris

- 1 General Editorial
Panagiotis Georgiadis and Dimitris Gouscos
- 3 Special issue Editorial
Petros Iosifidis and Michalis Meimaris
- 9 On convergent supersurfaces and public spheres online
Zizi A. Papacharissi
- 18 Mediated citizenship: power, practices, and identities
Peter Dahlgren
- 27 Public service media in Flanders: A long way to heaven?
Karen Donders
- 43 The unbrennt movement: a successful case of mobilising lurkers in a public sphere
Noella Edelmann, Peter Parycek and Judith Schossböck
- 69 Online social media for radical politics: climate change activism on YouTube
Tina Askanius and Julie Uldam
- 85 An empirical analysis of Online Social Network structure to understand citizen engagement in public policy and community building
Kon Shing Kenneth Chung and Akemi Takeoka Chatfield
- 104 Divergent views: social media experts and young citizens on politics 2.0
Anne Kaun and Carina Guyard
- 121 Citizenship and local development for the participation and digital governance of public administration: innovative experiences in Southern EU Member States
Victor Mari Saez and Francisco Sierra Caballero
- 136 Political parties and web 2.0 tools: A shift in power or a new digital Bandwagon?
Paschalia-Lia Spyridou and Andreas Veglis

- 156 Moving from opt-out to opt-in? Online information disclosure and privacy policies in an era of personalisation
Chris Vleugels, Griet Verhenneman and Stijn Bannier
- 172 News and Briefs
Valentina Trikoumaki and Eleni-Revekka Staiou
- 175 Conference Calendar
Aspasia Papaloi