

Psychodynamic Practice

Individuals, groups and organisations

Special Issue

Volume 17, Issue 3

The Editorial from the Special Issue is free to read online

Psycho-social perspectives on the dynamics of inclusion and exclusion in groups, organisations, communities and in society

Guest editors:

John Adlam and Christopher Scanlon

This Special Issue of Psychodynamic Practice is dedicated to exploring psychosocial perspectives on the dynamics of exclusion. It is timely as, in this time of rapid political and social change, we are all having to readdress and reassess where we belong and how we relate to each other and depend on one another across social divisions. Guest Editors John Adlam and Christopher Scanlon, both eminent and experienced practitioners in the field, have brought together a stimulating collection of papers which consider issues of inclusion and exclusion from many different perspectives, both practical and theoretical. In different ways and in their diverse fields, all the contributors explore the terms of engagement between the in-group and the out-group and consider how these might be redefined. The issue contributes essential ideas and voices to the debate on exclusion in modern society.

Articles

Cosmopolitan minds and metropolitan societies: social exclusion and social refusal revisited, Christopher Scanlon and John Adlam

Beating the barrel of inclusion: Cosmopolitanism through Rabelais and Rancière – A response to John Adlam and Chris Scanlon, Caroline Pelletier

Silk purses and sows' ears: the social and clinical exclusion of people with intellectual disabilities, Alan Corbett

Nothing left to lose? Freedom and compulsion in the treatment of dangerous offenders, Celia Taylor

An hospitable engagement? Open-door psychotherapy with the socially excluded, Gabrielle Brown, Kamal Kainth, Catherine Matheson, Jake Osborne, Anja Trenkle and John Adlam

Open Space Articles

Community hospitality initiatives: 'make a cup of tea first, ask questions later', Alastair Murray and Sarah Johnsen

'I want you to be able to see it': Diogenes and pathological hoarding, Sarah Birch

Violent field of thought: 'eating disorders', Elizabeth Berkshire

'... and they all lived happily ever after': 'recovery' or discovery of the self in personality disorder? Andy Brooker, Kath Lovell and Kati Turner

Book Reviews including

Derek Hook: Foucault, psychology and the analytics of power. Richard House

www.tandf.co.uk/journals/rpc

- Online sample copy
- Forthcoming articles
- Free articles
- Back issues
- Content alerts
- Submission details
- Pricing and ordering
- Library recommendation form