

Conference to be held at Birkbeck, University of London on Thursday 10th November
2011, 10.00am-4.00pm

This conference will offer the opportunity to hear about and share thinking on current key issues in lifelong learning. Student experience and perspectives will be considered, as will institutional aims and concerns in both Further and Higher education.

Fee (inclusive of lunch and refreshments):
UALL members £90.00
Non UALL members £120

More detailed information and a booking form will be circulated at a later stage.

Current Issues in Lifelong Learning from Student and Institutional Perspectives

Programme

- 10.00am Coffee and registration
- 10.30am Keynote speech: Professor Geoff Layer, Vice Chancellor University of Wolverhampton: The Academic Footprint
- 11.15am Panel of students: Experiences of lifelong learning
- 11.45am Workshop 1: Daphne Hampton, Education Consultant, and Anne Marie Bradley, University of Arts, London: The Student Voice - working in large groups
- 12.30pm Lunch
- 1.15pm Workshop 2: Elaine Hawkins, Birkbeck, University of London:
Widening access to higher education for students with young children - student and institutional perspectives
- 2.00pm Workshop 3: Ursula Murray, Birkbeck, University of London: The intellectual tin opener: a case study of work with students
- 2.45pm Workshop 4: Pauline McManus, University of Warwick: Group dynamics in lifelong learning contexts: student, tutor and institutional perspectives
- 3.30pm Tea and concluding comments

To register your interest in this event please contact:
Michelle Lotherington at m.lotherington@leeds.ac.uk, telephone 0113 343 7891.