

The Embassy of Israel in the Hague | Brill – Martinus Nijhoff Publishers

together with the Rosenne Family

are pleased to invite you to attend the first

Shabtai Rosenne Memorial Lecture

“Peaceful Settlement of Disputes: Paradigms, Plurality and Policy” which will be delivered by Professor Malcolm Shaw Q.C.

Senior Fellow, Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge and practising barrister at Essex Court Chambers, London

on Thursday, 24 November 2011 at 5.30 pm

(Doors open and coffee from 4.30 pm)

The Memorial Lecture will be followed by a Comment from

Dr. Daphné Richemond-Barak

Interdisciplinary Center (IDC) Herzliya

The programme will conclude with a Reception from 6.45 pm

Admission will be restricted to those who confirm their attendance in advance

RSVP by 21 November 2011 to rosennelecture@brill.nl

or 071 5353412 (Ms. Bea Timmer)

The event will take place in the Academy Building, Peace Palace Carnegieplein 2, 2517 KJ, The Hague. Please note that there will be no parking facilities available in the grounds of The Peace Palace.

The Shabtai Rosenne Memorial Lectures are an initiative of Alan Stephens, Professor Rosenne's Literary Executor

BRILL

MARTINUS
NIJHOFF
PUBLISHERS