Transforming the Culture of Care

State of the art event on cultural consultation in mental health care

- To reflect on findings and learning from our cultural consultation service in Tower Hamlets
- To consider models and methods of care provision and commissioning that are needed to meet patient needs, tackle inequalities, and address the complexity of care, whilst delivering on quality and cost-effectiveness.
- To provide a platform for commissioners, service providers, clinicians and service users to discuss best ways to address the current challenges in mental health care.

Places are free but spaces are limited, please contact Pat Staples by 7 December 2011 to reserve a place
