

LGBT Lives in Dialogue

February 24th 1.30pm – 5.30pm,

Research Beehive, Newcastle University

This afternoon conference seeks to create an open and inclusive space to encourage dialogue amongst academics and those working with LGBT communities through exploring the relationship between sexuality, social class and gender in a changing UK and International landscape.

- Queer Youth
- Experiences of advantage and disadvantage
- 'Belonging' in the city and rural spaces
- Inequalities and injustices: socio-legal transformations
- Past and Present LGBT lives
- Sexuality and Religion

The afternoon will include the presentation of papers by Dr Mark Casey (Newcastle University) 'Lesbian and Gay Lives in Newcastle' and Prof. Yvette Taylor (Weeks Centre for Social and Policy Research<sup>1</sup>, London South Bank University) 'Queer Suicide: The Life and Death of Queer Futures and Failures'. There will be room for dialogue and exchange of ideas.

Places on the day are free, but are limited to 30 people. Those wishing to join us on the day should email Mark Casey M.E.Casey@ncl.ac.uk and Yvette Taylor taylor@lsbu.ac.uk . Lunch will be provided.

<sup>1</sup> The Weeks Centre for Social and Policy Research is a research centre of international standing. See our New MA in Gender and Sexuality: <http://www.lsbu.ac.uk/ahs/research/weeks.shtml>