

Developing a Local List for Local Authorities

Fazeley Studios, 191 Fazeley Street, Digbeth, Birmingham, B5 5SE

8th March 2012

Who is this training for?

The course will be aimed at building capacity within local authorities. It will mainly be aimed at Conservation and Historic Environment Record and planning officers, as well as elected members who will use evidence from local lists in decision making.

©English Heritage

What are the benefits of attending?

This event introduces the English Heritage guidance on developing a local list (to be released early 2012). It will provide practical support and examples of good practice for any local authorities seeking to implement or improve a local list. It will also help decision makers understand the place of local lists in planning policy and the value of local heritage to the community.

Outline programme

	Session	Speaker
0930	Registration and refreshments
1000	Welcome
1015	Local Listing – Background to the Guidance	Gareth Wilson, Project Officer Local Engagement, English Heritage
1040	Assessing Local Significance	Paul Stamper, Senior Adviser, Designation Review Team, English Heritage
1105	Q&A
1115	Break
1130	Developing your local designation approach	Representative from Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council
1155	Discussion group
1220	Q&A
1230	Lunch
1315	Local Lists and Heritage at Risk	Warwick District Council representative
1405	Protecting Local Heritage – Local Lists & Planning Policy (including group work)	Warwick District Council representative
1500	Break
1515	Public Engagement	Gareth Wilson
1540	Q&A
1550	Summary and close

This course is free of charge and funded through the HELM training programme. In return participants are asked to cascade the outcomes of the course through any appropriate networks they have and their own organisations.

What are the learning outcomes?

By the end of the course, participants should have:

- an understanding of the benefits of local lists, and how they can be implemented and maintained.
- an appreciation of the place of local heritage assets in the local planning framework
- basic experience and knowledge of the Local Listings guidance
- the ability to identify and understand local designation approaches, including the relevant legal aspects.

How to book a place

E-mail HELMbookings@english-heritage.org.uk to reserve your place. Limited places are available. Priority will be given to the target audience where possible. Your place will be confirmed on receipt of a completed booking form. Forms may be returned via email, or to Sam Powell, English Heritage, The Engine House, Fire Fly Avenue, Swindon, SN2 2EH.

At English Heritage we aim to make training accessible for everyone. If you have any additional needs please let us know with as much notice as you can, and we will arrange this for you.

Cancellations policy: If you book a place and then find you are not able to attend, please send a replacement or notify us by e-mail as soon as possible. Please note that non-attendance will incur a cancellation fee of £50 for each place unless notice is received ten working days before the event date.

For details about other HELM training courses planned for 2012 go to www.helm.org.uk/training.

Booking form

Developing a Local List for Local Authorities - Birmingham

Name:

Organisation:

Position/ Job title:

Address:

.....

Day time tel:

E-mail:

Special access or dietary requirements:

Please tick this box if you do not want to be kept informed of future events

Please note that in choosing to be informed of future events you are agreeing for your personal data to be held by English Heritage in electronic format. This data will be used to evaluate the success of individual courses and provide you with targeted information concerning future HELM events.