Literary Translation as Creative Practice

PLANNING TO WORK AS A LITERARY TRANSLATOR?

Why not start with a postgraduate degree in Edinburgh?

The 12-months full-time, 24/36-months part-time programme MSc/Dip in Literary Translation as Creative Practice aims to:

- Enhance your practical skills in and intellectual perspective on literary translation.
- Link the activity of literary translation to the notion of creative practice, by emphasizing the originality, inspiration and resourcefulness that go into high-quality literary translations
- Encourage critical thinking on language use, translation and writing
- Provide you with confidence and competence in literary text production

- Broaden and deepen your understanding of a variety of issues in relation to translation and writing, such as gender, power relations, ideology, religion, and multimedia.

Edinburgh - You say you know the city, you say you know the castle, you say you know the people. It's all in the name of the city.
