第七屆全英中文作文大賽

The 7th UK National Chinese Essay Writing Competition

The UK Association for the Promotion of Chinese Education takes the lead and works with the Sussex University, London Mandarin Chinese School, Edinburgh Chinese School, Waltham Forest Chinese Association Sunday Chinese School, Hounslow Chinese School and Chinese Independent School Tower Hamlets, to launch the 7th UK national Chinese essay writing competition. We invite all schools to take part in this competition. Please note that the deadline is on 15th May, 2012.

1 Who Can Participate?

Learners study Chinese in community school, primary / secondary school, college, adult sector or university in Britain. The recommended work should be sent through the education institute on or before the deadline.

2 What to Write About?

It must be the participants' own original work. Candidates are free to choose the topics. They can also choose one of the following topics:

1. Olympics and I, 2. Pollution and Transportation, 3. Travelling, 4. Education, 5. Employment, 6. Leisure and sport, 7. Chinese Festivals, 8. Environment, 9. Food and Drinks, and 10. Others

3 Context and Genre

Writing can be in any genre to suit their purpose and should be from 100 to 500 characters. All entries can be either typed or handwritten. If handwritten, please write on a square boxed sheet or on the suggested sheet below. Traditional or simplified characters are equally acceptable.

4 Categories

The writings will be classified according to the following categories.

- (1) Chinese: Chinese candidates who have studied for four years or more than four years in China;
- (2) Overseas Chinese: British born Chinese or Chinese who had been in China for less than 4 years or one of the parents is non Chinese;
- (3) Non-native speakers: Both parents or foster parents are not Chinese origin.

5 Awards

The winners' list will be announced in June. There will be certificates classified as first class, second class and third class for each category group.

6 Additional Notes:

There will be no entry fee for this competition. Each competitor is limited to one piece of work. Manuscripts will not be returned. Copyright will be held by the organiser.
