

Good Practice in Research Ethics
Collaboration and professionalism in research integrity

24th May 2012
King's Manor, York

Draft Programme

- 10.00 Registration and coffee
- 10.20 Introduction, context, rationale
Dr Andrew Rawnsley (UKCGE, Executive Committee)
- 10.30 Collaboration and research integrity in an international context
Tony Mayer (NTU Singapore, European Science Advisory Governing Board, Co-author – Singapore Statement for Research Integrity)
- 11.30 Breakout A/B
Group A: Research ethics review and collaborative project planning
Group B: Institutional mechanisms to ensure integrity in collaboration
- 12.15 Breakout B/A
Groups swap and attend alternate breakout
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Plenary 2
Professionalism, leadership and research integrity: the answer is 'values'
Dr Fiona Denney (Graduate School - Kings College, London)
- 15.00 Breakout C/D Participants attend either C or D
Group C: Making 'professionalism', 'leadership', and 'integrity' meaningful for researchers
Group D: Whose responsibility: supervisors, students, institutions?
- 15.45 Closing plenary panel discussion
- 16.15 Close and Departure