

Pacific Islands Research Network

Occasional Lectures- Term 1- 2012

Thursdays, 5.30pm Room 209 Institute of Archaeology, UCL

4th October- Prof. Paul Sillitoe (Durham University)

What use is archaeology to anthropology, or anthropology to archaeology: A New Guinea highlands' view?

11th October- Dr. Tim Bayliss-Smith (University of Cambridge)

Irrigated taro, malaria and chiefdoms in Solomon Islands: keys to the Melanesian cultural mosaic?

Free to attend. No need to register- just turn up.

For more information contact Sarah Byrne s.byrne@ucl.ac.uk