

India @ King's Weekly Seminar, 1700 hrs
Small Committee Room, Ground floor, King's College, Strand campus

3 October 2012

Rachel Dwyer (SOAS): 'The Biggest Star of All: The Elephant in Hindi Cinema'

10 October 2012

Shashank Kela (Independent Scholar): 'A Rogue and a Peasant-Slave: An Adivasi Society under Colonialism and Beyond'

17 October 2012

Craig Jeffrey (Oxford): 'In Search of Indian Viagra: Unemployment, Caterpillar fungi, and Youth'

24 October 2012

David Arnold (Warwick): 'Intimate Histories & State Histories: The Politicisation of Poison in Colonial India'

31 October 2012

Raminder Kaur (Sussex): 'Nuclear Martyrs, Necropolitics and Protest in India'

14 November 2012

Rohan Deb Roy (Cambridge): 'Science, materials and Empire: Making pure-Quinine in British India, 1867-90'

21 November 2012 (Great Hall, 1800 hrs)

Sunil Khilnani (King's India Institute): 'Making Asia: India, China and the Struggle for an Idea' (Provisional Title), The Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Lecture, 2012 supported by Trinity College Cambridge, The Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Trust.

28 November 2012

Laura Bear (LSE): 'Making a River of Gold: Publicity, Friendship and Entrepreneurial Society on the Hooghly'

5 December 2012

Shruti Kapila (Cambridge): 'Ghadr: Violence and the Political Potential of the Global'
Jointly organised with the Institute of Historical Studies, University of London

Convenor: Dr Kriti Kapila

RSVP: india-institute@kcl.ac.uk