

A one day conference on the arts in sport

Headingley Carnegie Stadium, Leeds UK

Friday November 30th

Fields of Vision is convened by Leeds Rugby Arts (Leeds Rugby Foundation) and hosted in association with the Institute for Sport, Physical Activity and Leisure (Leeds Metropolitan University) to bring together those interested or engaged in the historical and contemporary relationship between the arts and sport.

- The Olympics in art and visual culture
- The 2012 Cultural Olympiad
- The representation of sport in museums
- The programmes of Great North Run Culture and of imove
- The arts and the cultural representation, celebration and critique of sport
- Discussion forum for arts practitioners and producers
- Educational and cultural policy
- Delegate papers by academics, researchers and arts practitioners

The cost of the conference is £70 including lunch, £50 for students. For bookings and further information see <http://onlinestore.leedsmet.ac.uk/> [conference and events - Fields of Vision]. Proposals for papers and presentations may still be considered, contact S.Armitage@leedsmet.ac.uk .

Fields of Vision and its associate arts programme is supported by funding from Arts Council England. Partners also include Rugby League Cares, Headingley LitFest and imove, a Cultural Olympiad programme in Yorkshire, funded by Legacy Trust UK, creating a lasting impact from the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games by funding ideas and local talent to inspire creativity across the UK.
