CONFERENCE FOR FESTIVALS 7 8 9 November 2012

As part of the 2012 Conference for Festivals, BAFA is pleased to present a new programme segment specifically for students and recent graduates who are looking at a career in the festival sector

This event will focus in detail on all the different jobs that go towards running a festival

A festival panel including Tania Harrison from Latitude Festival starts the afternoon programme which will then break into small groups focussing on specific roles within a festival team.

Individually hosted by a broad range of festival staff who will talk about their own career path as well as what their current job entails, there will, of course, be plenty of opportunity to ask questions.

Speakers include:

Tania Harrison, Arts and Special Events Promoter, Festival Republic
Rosie Turner, Artistic Director, Canterbury Festival
Michael Cainen, Programme Manager, Pound Arts (Corsham Festival)
Lindsey Dear, General Manager, City of London Festival
Natasha Astara, Festival Manager, Wirksworth Festival
Sarah Jones, Festival Officer, Bath Festivals
Alison Chambers, Programme Manager, Canterbury Festival
Sarah Shepherd, Development Manager, Brighton Festival
Jack Whitewood, Festival Director, Ventnor Fringe Festival

When: Wednesday 7 November 2012

Where: Southbank Centre, London

Time: 12.30 - 5.00pm
