

SEXUALITY at HOME

An interdisciplinary research workshop exploring the relationship between domesticity and sexuality

Keynote speakers:

Aaron Betsky, Architect and Critic,
Director, Cincinnati Art Museum
Andrew Gorman-Murray, Geographer,
University of Western Sydney

Presenters:

Carla Barrett, University of Southampton
Katarina Bonnevier, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm
Ben Campkin, UCL Urban Laboratory
Matt Cook, Birkbeck College,
University of London
Martin Dines, Kingston University
Jacqui Gabb, The Open University
Janet Fink, The Open University
R Justin Hunt, Syracuse University, London
Dana Kaplan, The Hebrew University and The Open University, Israel
Matt Smith, University of Brighton
Carin Tunaker, University of Kent

Venues:

Wellcome Trust (until 5pm)
215 Euston Road, London, nw1 2be

UCL, Wates House (from 5pm)
22 Gordon Street, London, wc1h 0bq

11 December 2012, 9am-6pm

This event is free.

RSVP to brent.pilkey.09@ucl.ac.uk or on facebook at
'Sexuality at Home Workshop'

Organised by Brent Pilkey. With assistance from Rachel Scicluna; also Ben Campkin, Andrew
Gorman-Murray and Barbara Penner.

Financially supported by The Bartlett School of Architecture
UCL Graduate School

In association with Centre for Studies of Home
The Geffrye Museum of Home
Histories of Home Subject Specialist Network (SSN)
UCL Urban Laboratory

Photograph: Piccadilly 1830, Nymans House,
© Matt Smith, Image by Sussie Ahlberg

THE GEFFRYE
MUSEUM OF THE HOME

