

THE GREAT BRITISH ART DEBATE

A seminar on current practice and future possibilities for art museum partnerships. The Great British Art Debate brought four museums together to stimulate discussion about art, nationhood and British identity through shared exhibitions of their collections. This seminar will reflect on the success of the project's activities and exhibitions, exploring partnership working and developing ideas for an ongoing British Art partnership.

Thursday 15 November 2012

Great North Museum: Hancock

Barras Bridge, Newcastle Upon Tyne, NE2 4PT

To book your FREE place:

Email: zoe.allen@twmuseums.org.uk

Telephone: (0191) 211 2122 / Textphone: 18001 0191 2112122

www.laingartgallery.org.uk / www.greatbritishartdebate.org