

Happy Holidays
and all the very best for 2013!

With warm wishes,
The Economics Network

News and updates from the Economics Network:

'Communicating Economics' Student Competition

Please remind your students about our latest student competition focused on communicating economic concepts to non-economists, as the break over Christmas is a great time for students to work on their entries.

The winner will be awarded £250 plus the opportunity to work for Hargreaves Lansdown for up to 6 months.

For full details, please visit:

<http://www.hl.co.uk/about-us/careers/communicating-economics-competition>

A Very European Christmas - new video!

Econ Films have released a new video entitled 'A very European Christmas', which is a sequel to their very successful film about the European financial crisis.

These videos are a great way to engage your students and get them thinking about real world economic issues.

To watch the film, please visit: <http://www.econfilms.tv/>

Economics Network Events - Save the dates!

We have two big events coming up in 2013 and we'd love to see you there so add the following dates to your diaries!

Spring Symposium: 'Changing expectations: implications of a new funding era for the teaching of economics'

Date: Friday 1st March 2013

Venue: HM Treasury, London

Developments in Economics Education Conference 2013

Date: 5th and 6th September 2013

Venue: University of Exeter

For more information, including on submitting papers to DEE, please visit:

www.economicsnetwork.ac.uk/news

