

Research inspiration results in student aspiration

Liverpool John Moores University
CENTRE FOR EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH
INSPIRATIONAL RESEARCH LECTURE SERIES 2013

Lecture Series Programme 2013

'Reconstructing lives following catastrophic spinal cord injury for rugby players and their families: a narrative analysis'

Professor Andrew Sparkes

Mon 14 January, 2013 (4-5pm) TLT1

'Doing Research on Expeditions: from Scott of the Antarctic to Stott of the Arctic'

Professor Tim Stott

Tues 15 January, 2013 (5-6pm) TLT1

'The future of the English National Curriculum: Learning from School Leaders'

Professor Mark Brundrett

Thurs 31 January, 2013 (4-5pm) TLT2

'Tales from Magaluf and Palma Nova: Brits on Holiday'

Dr. Hazel Andrews

Tues 5 February, 2013 (2-3pm) B123

'Sports Policy research in the summer of London 2012: where next for the coalition government and the academic sports policy research community?'

Chris Mackintosh

Mon 11 February, 2013 (5-6pm) TLT1

'Women's feet are not too small, they can walk away from the sink!'

Dr. Andrea Mallaburn

Thurs 7 March, 2013 (5-5.30pm) M209

'Bungee jumping for beginners. Context based learning (I know the physics, would I still jump?)'

Ken Clays

Thurs 7 March, 2013, (5.30-6pm) M209

'No point in shouting from the side-lines...coaching and mentoring'

Bryn Jones

Mon 11 March, 2013 (5-5.30) M209

'Is enough, enough? Subject Knowledge for teaching and learning'

Rick Tynan

Mon 11 March, 2013 (5.30-6.00) M209

Lectures are free and all LJMU staff, undergraduate and postgraduate students are welcome to attend and be inspired!

Lectures will take place at the Faculty of Education, Community and Leisure, I.M.Marsh Campus and refreshments will be provided.

For further info. or to book a place contact e.fitzgerald@ljmu.ac.uk/ 0151 231 5334. Please ensure to book a place in advance to guarantee entry.

