

The 2013 EABG London Conference 50th Anniversary Meeting

Keynote Speaker Professor Bill Heward

Call for Papers, Symposium, and Workshops

We are pleased to announce that the 50th Anniversary meeting of the Experimental Analysis of Behaviour Group (EABG) will be held at University College London, March 25th-27th 2013. Symposium, papers, and posters are invited on experimental, applied, and conceptual aspects of behaviour analysis and learning. Titles and abstracts (150 words maximum) should be submitted electronically via our web page before February 24th, 2013 (web submission opens January 21st).

European Journal of Behavior Analysis (EJOBA)

We are pleased to announce that the EJOBA will be printing another Special EABG edition of the journal to be published in December 2013. The EJOBA is issuing an open invitation to EABG presenters to submit manuscripts for peer review to be included in this special edition. Deadline for submissions of manuscripts for the journal is 5th July 2013. For more information including preparation of manuscript guidelines, visit the EJOBA web page (<http://www.ejoba.org/>) or contact the EJOBA editor Erik Arntzen (erik.arntzen@equivalence.net).

UK Society for Behaviour Analysis (UK-SBA)

We are also pleased to announce that the official launch of the UK Society for Behaviour Analysis (UK-SBA) will take place at this year's EABG meeting. UK-SBA is a non-profit membership organisation committed to advancing the science and effective and ethical practice of Behaviour Analysis, with the aim of broadening public awareness of the discipline, and promoting and disseminating relevant research studies.
