

NOT HEARD NOT LISTENED TO NOT DISCUSSED

In partnership with The Foundation for Families
& the University of Huddersfield

Date: 21st March 2013

Time: 9.15 - 4.30

Venue: St Thomas Centre, Manchester

System change in tackling the problem of domestic abuse of women and safeguarding children.

Working with ten children's safeguarding boards across Yorkshire and the Humber and the North West between April 2011 and March 2013 (a Department for Education funded Pilot), WomenCentre and its partners will share the learning from their multi agency partnership working (strategic and operational) and from the interviews undertaken with women and children in the pilot sites.

The day will include presentations from the University of Huddersfield - project final evaluation report, Mikron Theatre Company production - The voice of the child and Themed Workshops - System changes in complex safeguarding work.

Full Conference details on attached booking form - early bird offer available £85 if booked before 31st January 2013 otherwise £100 per person.

For all further enquires please email caroline.burbidge@womencentre.org.uk