

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Collections Delivering Health Outcomes UKMCG

The UK Medical Collections Group

Thackray Medical Museum

Tuesday 5 March 2013

10.00      Arrival and registration / Coffee

10.15      Welcome on behalf of Thackray Museum and UKMCG
Joanne Bartholomew, Thackray Medical Museum

10.20      Overview of recent changes to the NHS and public health sector
Toni Williams, Speciality Registrar in Public Health, Leeds NHS Trust

10.40      'To travel hopefully': the reality of collaborative working between health and cultural organisations
Wendy Gallagher, Whitworth Art Gallery/Manchester Museum

11.10      Q&A / discussion

11.20      Coffee

11.40      House of Memories: working with people affected by dementia, including introduction of a toolkit for undertaking similar work and a discussion of commissioning and funding experiences
Claire Benjamin and Carol Rogers, National Museums Liverpool
Naomi Lewis, Salford Museum

12.45      Panel – Q&A/ discussion to wrap up morning sessions

1.00      Lunch

1.45      Evidencing health outcomes in museums: introducing a new evaluation framework
Helen Chatterjee, University College London

2.15      2 x breakout workshops: practical examples of using the framework
Lauren Ryall-Stockton, Thackray Medical Museum
Catriona Smellie, The Infirmary, Worcester

3.00      Coffee

3.15      Discussion and planning session: how can museums work in partnership to secure funding and deliver programmes that meet health outcomes?

4.00      Close