Berkshire Archaeology, part of Reading Borough Council's Cultural Services, provides archaeological services to the five Berkshire unitary authorities of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead (lead client), Reading Borough Council, Bracknell Forest Council, Slough Borough Council, and Wokingham Borough Council.

We are looking to recruit an experienced Archaeologist to join our growing team based at Reading Central Library, to assist in providing a high level of service to our clients:

This is an exciting opportunity to become involved in various aspects of local authority archaeological provision. Reporting to the Principal Archaeologist, you will be responsible for the provision of archaeological development management advice, including liaison and negotiation with planners, developers and contractors. You will also play a key role in developing the service through working with team members to deliver projects, including HER development and other externally-funded initiatives.

You should have a degree in Archaeology, AIFA or equivalent proven skills, appropriate level of experience of professional archaeology in Britain, an extensive knowledge of archaeological fieldwork techniques and experience of working with Historic Environment Records.
