

Ale and Hearty hosts—the Vintage Mobile Cinema (for Lewes Heritage Open Days)

Visit our free two day cinematic event!

A weekend cinema experience in Lewes, for Heritage Open Days. All welcome.*

The Ale and Hearty project hosts the Vintage Mobile Cinema, showcasing a bespoke short film celebrating bygone days of hop-picking, brewing and Sussex traditions, with vintage footage. No booking required.

Come see our secret cinema and fascinating cinematic archive over the weekend, and enjoy the luxury of the red carpet treatment! We will be showing the film three times per hour, daily. The Vintage Mobile Cinema is a 22 seater cinema open to all: www.vintagemobilecinema.co.uk/events

This event for Lewes Heritage Open Days, is part of the Ale and Hearty project celebrating lost breweries and brewing in the Lewes area.

The Vintage Mobile Cinema is the only surviving unit from a fleet of Ministry of Technology mobile cinemas built in 1967, now restored to its former glory.
