The truth behind Black History Month 1926 – 2013

Exhibition at Hackney Museum

26 September 2013 – 4 January 2014

Sankofa is the African Adinkra symbol meaning the wisdom of learning from the past to build the future. We look back over the past 75 years of the history of African and African Caribbean people in this country and the rise of Black History Month, from its 1926 American origins to its beginnings and development in UK 25 years ago.

Special late night opening on Thursdays, please check online at www.hackney.gov.uk/museum
