

RECRUITMENT NOTICE

The Carter Center is seeking highly qualified candidates to join its Election Observation Mission in Nepal:

THE
CARTER CENTER

Interpreter

The Interpreter will accompany and provide consecutive interpretation for International Observers deployed across the country. Conditions vary, but candidates should be able to work in difficult and politically sensitive environments and prepared to travel - often on foot - in areas not accessible by vehicle, within their region of deployment.

Primary responsibilities:

- Provide consecutive translation between Nepali and English-Nepali for International Observers
- Accompany and offer logistical support to the Observers as they conduct monitoring and assessment of the electoral and political environment on the ground in the period leading up to, including, and directly following the elections.

Qualifications:

Ideal candidates will possess some or all of the following qualifications:

- Experience in consecutive interpretation Nepali-English-Nepali
- Fluency in written and spoken English required. Proficiency in local language(s) of Nepal highly preferred;
- Knowledge of politics and culture in Nepal, and related technical vocabulary
- Experience in some or all of the following areas: elections, citizens' rights, conflict resolution and peace-building, political analysis preferred;
- Experience with working in cross-cultural environments;
- Willingness to travel throughout Nepal, ability to live in difficult conditions, perform well under stress, work within a team, and maintain professionalism at all times;

The Carter Center provides a competitive daily salary, accommodation, and a per diem payment to staff deployed in the field.

To apply send CV, cover letter, and three professional references to:

recruitment@tcceomnepal.com

The Carter Center is an equal opportunity employer; women, dalits, janajatis, madheshis & other marginalized group candidates are strongly encouraged to apply. All Nepali Nationals are eligible to apply.

Due to the high volume of applications, the Center is unable to reply individually to all candidates. Only those selected for an interview or additional consideration will be notified by the Center; no phone or in-person applications will be entertained. Length of contract for these positions is approximately 10 days (12-22 November).

CLOSING DATE: October 14th, 2013