

Can't see this email? View it in your web browser.

Time to Change is England's biggest ever programme to end the discrimination faced by people with mental health problems.

Time to Change South East launch event

You are invited to the launch of the Time to Change Children and Young People's work in the South East of England (Kent) on Tuesday, 5 November 2013 at the Kia Oval in London.

Over the next 18 months, Time to Change's children and young people's project will work in the South East, with a focus on Kent, to build discrimination-free lives for children, young people and their families.

Come along from 9.30am until 4pm on Tuesday, 5 November 2013 to find out more about:

- How Time to Change's work will have an impact on young people

About us >

Follow us on:

and their families in your region

- The successes and findings of our first pilot in the West Midlands
- What resources you can use
- Partnership opportunities and how you can get involved
- Involvement and participation opportunities for children and young people you work with
- Our interactive training aimed at those working with children and young people

The event will be of interest to youth workers, school and college staff, faith groups, community groups, youth offending teams, volunteers, parents, anyone working with young people aged 11-25, and local authority staff.

Book your place

About this update

You can stop receiving these updates. You can also unsubscribe from all email communications from Time to Change.

{domain.address}

Funded by

