

Psychology Matters

(Bi-Monthly Training Events & Case Discussions)

Psicon has been supporting Occupational Health services and employees since 1998. To celebrate 15 years of this specialist service, we will be offering a series of workshops.

Workshop 3: Addressing the Relationships between Occupational Health, Human Resources, Clinical Psychology & the Employee.

Presented by:

Dr Daniel Simmonds, Clinical Psychologist

Dr Ananda van den Heuvel, Clinical Psychologist

This workshop aims to consider the relationships between the key stakeholders in employees' psychological health and wellbeing. By considering the demands and expectations on each, we present a model for best practice in working together in the best interests of the employee. The application of theoretical models will be discussed with reference to case studies.

Venue: Ebury Hotel, Canterbury, CT1 3DX

Date: 25th November 2013

Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm

Refreshments will be provided.

Future topics include:

- Psychodermatology
- Memory problems? How do we help the employee?
- Dual diagnosis in mental health: The challenge in rehabilitation.

A PANEL OF PSYCHOLOGISTS WILL DISCUSS CASES RELEVANT IN OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH. THERE WILL BE OPPORTUNITY FOR ATTENDEES TO DISCUSS CASES AND PSYCHOLOGICAL MATTERS RELEVANT TO THEIR WORK.

To reserve your place on this free workshop, please email assistantpsych@psicon.co.uk by 11 November 2013. Places are limited so book early to avoid disappointment.
