

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte

www.academicsservices.uncc.edu

(704)687-7227

Academic Services at UNC Charlotte enriches the academic community by offering a broad range of initiatives promoting student success, ensuring access, and enhancing the educational experience of all students. Through transition programs, learning communities, support for student-athletes, academic advising, career services, experiential learning, university-wide honors programs, disability services, tutorial programs, and initiatives for underrepresented students, Academic Services cultivates life skills critical to successful graduation and global citizenship. Advocating for the needs of a diverse student population, Academic Services utilizes an integrated student-centered approach which reinforces rigorous academic expectations and encourages student engagement from the time of enrollment through graduation.

Athletic Academic Center

~Assisting all Charlotte varsity student-athletes in achieving academic and personal success ~
Academic advising services, tutorial services, study hall, life skills program, academic recognition including Chancellor's List, Dean's List and Athletic Director's Honor Roll. Liaison for student athletes with faculty and departmental academic advisors. Monitor academic progress in meeting NCAA requirements.

Ms. Lisa Hibbs, Director, lhhibbs@uncc.edu

A145 ATAC Building, (704)687-6240

<http://www.charlotte49ers.com>

Disability Services

~ Ensuring access to academic programs and campus facilities for all individuals by providing appropriate and reasonable accommodations based upon the individual's disability and documented needs ~

Academic accommodations (testing, note-taking, classroom location, advanced technology), counseling and consultation, housing resources, compliance with laws regarding disability, confidential services, student and faculty/staff responsibilities.

Ms. Jo Ann Fernald, Director, jfernal1@uncc.edu

230 Fretwell Building, (704)687-4355 (tty/v)

www.ds.uncc.edu

Honors College

~ Offering academically talented students personal and intellectual advantages often with an emphasis on seminars, intensive reading, writing, and discussion ~

University Honors Program, College of Arts & Architecture Honors Program, College of Business Honors Program, College of Computing and Informatics Honors Program, College of Education Honors Program, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences academic department honors, Teaching Fellows Program, merit scholarships, scholarships for advanced undergraduate and graduate students, pre-health professions advising.

Dr. Al Maisto, Associate Dean, amaisto@uncc.edu

369 Cone Center, (704)687-7197

www.honorscollege.uncc.edu

Multicultural Academic Services

~Providing academic support to students of African, Asian, Hispanic/Latino, Native American, and Pacific Islander descent; open to all students~

Summer and academic year enrichment programs including University Transition Opportunities Program (UTOP); Student Advising for Freshmen Excellence (SAFE); Producing Readiness of Diverse University Cohorts in Education (PRODUCE); and Building Better Brothers (B3). Services for individuals and groups, including secondary academic advising, tutoring, study halls, mentoring and workshops, monitoring of academic progress and recognition of academic achievement. Resource and referrals for students, faculty and staff.

Dr. Samuel Lopez, Director, slopez7@uncc.edu

318B Fretwell Building, (704)687-4759

www.mas.uncc.edu

University Career Center

~ Providing students a comprehensive approach to career preparation ~

Career assessment, career advising, internships including 49erships (non-credit internships), service learning, cooperative education, externships, workshops (resume writing, interviewing skills, etc.), job fairs, interviews with employers, and liaisons to academic departments.

Ms. Denise Dwight Smith, Director, ddsmith@uncc.edu

150 Atkins Library, (704)687-2231

www.career.uncc.edu

University Center for Academic Excellence

~ Enhancing students' abilities to succeed academically ~

Supplemental instruction, tutorial services, study skills workshops, academic success seminars, individual consultations, Learning Lab, B.E.S.T. federal program for 1st generation students, Students Obtaining Success (peer mentoring for students on academic probation).

Ms. Cathy Blat, Director, cmblat@uncc.edu

330 Fretwell Building, (704)687-3539

www.ucae.uncc.edu

Learning Communities

~ Engaging students with the University early in their undergraduate years through a collaborative program sponsored by Academic Affairs and Student Affairs ~

Sixteen (16) different options based on themes, academic disciplines and/or colleges. Fifteen designed for freshmen and one for transfer. www.lc.uncc.edu

For More Information, Contact:

Dr. Cynthia Wolf Johnson, Associate Provost, Academic Services

Teaching Associate Professor, Communication Studies

Faculty Affiliate, Organizational Science

240 Cato Hall

cwolfj@uncc.edu

How can we assist you? Let us know by:

- ◆ Scheduling an appointment.
- ◆ Requesting one or more of us to meet you in your office.
- ◆ Asking us to join one of your meetings or classes.
- ◆ Submitting your suggestions anonymously through www.academicsservices.uncc.edu

How can you assist us?

- ◆ Refer Students & Faculty
- ◆ Teach or Take a Seminar
- ◆ Collaborate in Program Design or Participate in Programs

DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE

The university experience can be challenging to navigate, especially if you're far from home, family and friends. Knowing that you have an advocate and ally on campus can help you feel more connected and help you achieve your goals. We know it's not easy to juggle your academic and social priorities, and sometimes problems arise that you don't know how to handle. We want you to remember that you never have to go it alone.

● HOW WE HELP

We provide you with a safe, confidential and respectful setting where you can speak openly and honestly about your concerns.

We give you our full, undivided attention, gather information relevant to your issue, and discuss any of your concerns or questions in a way that helps you choose the best course of action.

We empower you to act on your own behalf by encouraging you to develop critical thinking and problem solving skills.

We facilitate an ongoing relationship and dialogue with parents, guardians and mentors that will provide you with the foundation you need to succeed.

THE VISION OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE IS TO BE THE HUB OF YOUR NINE NATION STUDENT EXPERIENCE.

● WE CAN HELP YOU

- Withdraw due to special circumstances
- Request an emergency absence
- Understand the Code of Student Responsibility and Code of Academic Integrity policies for students, faculty and staff
- File a grievance or appeal
- Volunteer for community service
- Get involved in Fraternity & Sorority Life
- Understand the campus conduct system
- Report sexual harassment
- Learn more about women's issues, domestic violence and ethical decision making
- Become a peer mentor
- Join the Student Government Association (SGA)
- Learn your off-campus student rights

The Dean of Students Staff can help you with all of that and more, so if your concern isn't listed, go ahead and contact us anyway. Think of us as your family away from home.

