2014 CONFERENCE

Date: 17 May 2014

Theme: Members' Research

Venue: Leicester University, Salisbury Road, Leicester

This year the Society will again offer the opportunity to hear presentations from some Members on their own research projects. As well as these interesting talks, there will be a raffle and presentation to the winner of the Paul Newton-Taylor Award, which this year will be judged by Members from a list of submitted articles to the Society Newsletter over the three issues preceeding the Conference.

For those in the area or staying over, the Committee are intending to stay at the Premier Inn, Leicester City Centre, close to the station, where attendees are welcome to join them on Friday or Saturday evening for a meal.

Attendance at Conference will cost £16, which will include a buffet lunch and tea/coffee on arrival. Attendees can register for the Conference via the Society website at www.fachrs.com
