

A London Region Post-14 Network Research and Policy Working Day

Development and Delivery of 16-19 Study Programmes: Meeting learners' needs

Tuesday 26 November 2013, 10.00 – 15.30

Drama Studio, Institute of Education, University of London, London WC1H 0AL

PROGRAMME

09.30 – 10.00	Registration (Refreshments available)
10.00 – 10.15	Welcome and Chair's opening remarks Professor Ann Hodgson, Assistant Director London, Institute of Education, University of London
10.15 – 10.55	16-19 Study Programmes: The evidence and the learning Professor Alison Wolf, Kings College, University of London
10.55 – 11.10	16-19 Study Programmes: A Departmental Update Sue Clarke, Vocational Education Division, Department for Education
11.10 – 11.30	16-19 Study Programmes: A Survey by the Association of Colleges (AoC) Debbie Ribchester, 14-19 and Curriculum Senior Policy Manager, AoC
11.30 – 11.50	Refreshments
11.50 – 12.40	Workshops: What are the key issues? Chaired by John Ruskin College a. Focus on full programmes: Stanmore College b. Focus on English and mathematics: City and Islington College c. Focus on the experience of work: London College of Beauty Therapy (LCBT)
12.40 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 13.50	16-25 Study Programmes: Learners with Learning Difficulties and/or Disabilities Ruth Perry, Director, Learners First
13.50 – 14.15	A College's Vision for 16-19 Study Programmes Tim Eyton-Jones, Principal and Chief Executive, John Ruskin College
14.15 – 15.15	Workshops: What have we done? Chaired by John Ruskin College a. Focus on full programmes: Collyer's: The College of Richard Collyer b. Focus on English and mathematics: Brooke House Sixth Form College (BSix) (TBC) c. Focus on the experience of work: Barking and Dagenham College
15.15 – 15.30	Plenary – where do we go from here?
15.30	Refreshments, Networking and Close

