

SEG

“Students into Mining” January 29th 2014

An event designed to help students learn more about employment in the mining industry and the careers it supports. There is a range of speakers to cover all aspects from direct geological employment through to consulting, academia, law and finance. Talks will be focussed on employment opportunities and career advice.

Event kindly sponsored by
MAYER • BROWN

Agenda

12:00 – 12:30: Registration and introductions

12:30 – 14:30:

Natural History Museum (Richard Herrington)

Rio Tinto (Benedikt Steiner)

Neftex (Graeme Nicoll)

Wardell Armstrong (Liv Carroll)

14:30 – 15:00: Coffee break in G35

15:00 – 17:30:

PwC (Stephney Dallmann)

SRK

Mayer Brown (Jonathan Hosie)

Anglo American (Graham Brown)

17:30: Networking Reception at the RSM bar (sponsored by Mayer Brown)

Location

The event will be hosted in room G41 on the ground floor of the Royal School of Mines (RSM) Building at Imperial College. Refreshments will be served in room G35; all rooms will be clearly signposted. Entrance to the RSM is from Prince Consort Road. The nearest tube station is South Kensington, which is around a 10 minute walk. See Imperial College Campus map for directions at: <http://tinyurl.com/RSMmap>

For enquiries and to register email

seg.chapter@imperial.ac.uk