

Law, Gender and Sexuality: Sources and methods in socio-legal research

Monday,
19 May 2014,
10.00-17.00

Institute of Advanced Legal Studies

Charles Clore House
17 Russell Square
London WC1B 5DR

Registration fee

- £70.00

- £60 .00 for SLSA members

- £30.00 for students

(including lunch and refreshments)

Advance registration required.

To register, make payment and to see the full programme please visit the website:

www.sas.ac.uk/events/view/15965

Enquiries: Belinda.Crothers@sas.ac.uk

This event, organised collaboratively by the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, the Socio-Legal Studies Association and the British Library, aims to draw attention to archives and content that newcomers to the field may not be aware of and to consider the methodological and practical issues involved in analysing sources.

Speakers:

Professor Amanda Perry-Kessaris (Kent)

Elizabeth Dawson (IALS)

Professor Fiona Cownie (Keele)

Heather Dawson (LSE)

Jon Sims (British Library)

Professor Leslie J Moran (Birkbeck)

Dr Polly Russell (British Library)

Professor Richard Collier (Newcastle)

Professor Rosemary Hunter (Kent)

Dr Rosie Harding (Birmingham)

Daniel Monk (Birkbeck)

Dr Dominic Janes (Birkbeck)

Professor Rosemary Auchmuty (Reading)

Collections include:

Hall Carpenter Archive (LSE)

Women's Library@LSE

Archives of Legal Education (IALS)

British Library collections