

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME 7 MAY 2014

POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH CONFERENCE

09.00 - 09.45 Coffee and Registration (Reception area at Hogan
Lovells Lecture Theatre
PCL048)

09.45 - 09.55 Welcome

09:55 - 10:55 Guest Speaker -
Professor Roger Smith
"A Short Cut to Justice"

10:55 - 12.40 Panel 1

How do Judges Sentence? Graeme Brown,
University of Edinburgh

The Management of Complex Fraud Trials:
a Socio-Legal Perspective. Aleksandra
Jordanoska, University of London

'Spectators in their own case': the trials of refugees prosecuted for passport type offences. Yewa Holiday, University of London

Bad Character Evidence and the Jury.
Emma Smith, Northumbria University

12.40 - 13.10 Lunch

13.10 - 14.30 Panel 2

Restorative Justice Conferences in Northern Ireland: who decides on the outcome?
Elizabeth McClory, Durham University.

The Rehabilitation Revolution: Is it the Market Solution to the Problem of Short-Term Sentence Re-Offending? John Lee,
Sussex University

Ex-prisoners in higher education: A study of desistance, self-change; identity and negotiation through higher education.
David Honeywell, University of York

14.30 - 14.45 Coffee / Tea Break

14.45 - 16.30 Panel 3

Assessing Democratic Functions of the Lay Adjudication in Criminal Trials in Japan.
Yumiko Kita, University of Sussex

ILO-169 and the application of Criminal Law to Chilean Indigenous People. Rodrigo
Céspedes Proto Lancaster University

Clemency: The Most Important Decision in the American Criminal Justice System?
Sarah L. Cooper, Birmingham City University

Cultural Defences and Cultural Offences: The Challenges Presented to the Criminal Law of England and Wales by Multiculturalism.
Janet Keliher, University of Exeter

16.30 - 16.45 Coffee / Tea Break

16.45 - 17.45 Guest Speaker - His Honour
Judge James Goss QC,
Recorder of Newcastle

17.45 - 17.50 Conference Close

17.50 - 18.15 Wine Reception

18.30 Conference Dinner
(at local restaurant)