

OAT

The Symposium

A network for art education in the Oxfordshire region promoting outstanding training and good practice

New Technology and the Value of Art

BE INSPIRED !

Presentations

Susan Coles: President of the NSEAD
The value of the Visual Arts in Education

Greg Hodson: Head of Art, Chalfont School
Digital creativity in and beyond the classroom

Practical sessions

Ross Wallis: Apple distinguished educator, Adobe education leader, Head of Creative Arts Sidcot School
Towards an integrated use of digital media

Angus Dick: freelance digital artist, currently working for the BBC
The collaborative use of smart devices and apps in the classroom.

Elisabeth Buecher: textile designer, visiting Lecturer Central St Martins, Education manager Fashion and Textile Museum, London
Designing textiles with new technologies

For practical sessions we have limited i-pads, if you can please bring an i-pad, or smartphone that will help

BOOK NOW !

Date: Saturday 28th June 2014
10.00 welcome coffee
4.00 finish
Venue: Abingdon and Witney College
Wooton Road
Abingdon
OX14 1GG
Cost: £30 including refreshments

Booking and payment:
Tel. 01235 555585,
quoting OAT symposium

Enquiries:
adrian.brooks@prm.ox.ac.uk

Also:
Abingdon and Witney College exhibition of Art Design and Photography

Networking
Lunch and refreshments provided.
Starbeck art objects
Pennies from Heaven art books