PSYCHOLOGY OF SEXUALITIES REVIEW (PoSR)

CALL FOR PAPERS - 2014

The Psychology of Sexualities Review (PoSR) is an international peer-reviewed publication which is published annually by the British Psychological Society (BPS). EBSCO, the world's largest aggregator of full-text journals, has recently selected PoSR for abstracting and indexing in its databases. The full text of PoSR will be accessible through EBSCO's database.

The Editor of the Psychology of Sexualities Review encourages the submission of manuscripts for peer-review and publication that cover a wide range of perspectives on the psychology of sexualities. The following types of submissions are encouraged:

- Empirical, theoretical and review articles on any aspect of the psychology of sexualities
- Reflective clinical pieces and case-studies
- Book reviews
- Bibliographic articles
- Short articles on relevant research papers, conference reports
- Short reports, commentaries and opinion pieces
- Notices of events and activities of likely interest to members of the BPS Psychology of Sexualities Section

All submissions should be sent electronically to the Editor:

Editor: Dr Kristoff Bonello DPsych CPsychol Email: kristoffbonello@hotmail.com
