PsyPAG Quarterly submission guidelines

The Quarterly accepts a variety of article types:
Featured Articles and Discussion Papers: Articles can cover a wide range of topics. Articles may describe a piece of original research; provide an overview of a theory, area or issue.

Research in Brief: A short report of original research, often preliminary findings.

Big Interviews: An interview with anyone connected with Psychology, usually written in a question and answer format.

Conference Reviews: Provide an overview of a conference, outlining the main themes of the conference.

Departmental Reviews: An overview of a department as well as research interests of the postgraduates.

Book and Software Reviews: A review of books or software relevant to psychologists.

Hints and Tips: Hints and tips that will be useful to postgraduates. For example, how to apply for funding.

Postgraduate Research in Brief: This is a reference list of research that has recently been published by postgraduates within a particular area or department.

Word Limits:
The journal has a broad word limit of 500 - 2500 words excluding references. The maximum word limit is flexible for in depth discussion papers, longer interviews or hints and tips. The word count will differ depending on the type of article, for example conference and book reviews should be shorter than featured articles.
Formatting:

Please submit all articles in Microsoft Word. The content, including tables, figures, and references should all comply with the most recent APA guidelines. You should also include your contact details at the end of each article in the format of:
