CWA Dagger in the Library Award 2014

Nominate an author for the award and be entered into a draw to win £200 of Dead Good crime books*

The Crime Writers' Association Dagger in the Library is awarded to a crime writer for a body of work and is unique in that it offers a chance for readers to nominate their favourite British crime fiction authors.

Which means, YOU decide who makes it onto the longlist! AND have the chance to get your hands on some great books from Dead Good simply by nominating your favourite author.

Previous winners have included present judge Steve Mosby, Belinda Bauer, Mo Hayder, Alexander McCall Smith and Peter Robinson. The judging panel will consist of public library staff. So go on, get your thinking caps on and send your nominations our way.
