

Creative Ideas for the Outdoor Classroom

Images: NTPL/Arnhel de Serra/John Millar

A professional development workshop for those working with primary age children and all outdoor educators.

You will take away inspiring ideas to engage pupils in active learning and to encourage their interest in the natural world.

Dates and venues:

Tuesday 21 October 2014 at Slapton Ley Field
Centre, nr Kingsbridge.

Wednesday 22 October 2014 at Lydford
Gorge, Okehampton, nr Exeter.

Time: 9.30am – 4.00pm.

Tutor: Laura Hetherington.

Cost: £98 to include all refreshments and lunch.

Dress: Outdoor clothing and sensible footwear.

Creative Ideas for the Outdoor Classroom will:

Provide a range of practical ideas that can be employed to develop learning skills when using the outdoor classroom.

Extend professional understanding of the importance of outdoor experiences for children.

Support creative planning and cross-curricular approaches to delivering the curriculum.

Help you to raise levels of achievement for your pupils.

The course will be led by Laura Hetherington, a highly creative and motivated arts-in-education specialist.

With over 20 years experience of education at grass roots and strategic levels, Laura has experience from Key Stages 1 to 4 as well as a wealth of experience of leading training sessions, facilitating workshops, directing theatre, telling stories and developing learning strategies. She is passionate about bringing the natural world to life and reconnecting people with nature in creative ways.

Places are limited.

To book please call Laura on 07500 016 173
or email laura@jakalory.org.uk

<http://www.jakalory.org.uk/>

http://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/lydford_gorge www.field-studies-council.org/slaptonley