

PROGRAMME: "LONDON CONNECT"

ARRANGED BY FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES & HUMANITIES

LONDON METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY (166 – 220 HOLLWAY ROAD, N7 8DB)

(NO CHARGE BUT REGISTRATION REQUIRED SEE BELOW ON HOW TO REGISTER)

THINKING ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH?

THURSDAY 23 OCTOBER 2014: LONDON METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

10.00 AM TO 11.15 AM

MAKING RECOVERY A REALITY

Richmond Fellowship presentation

‘Addressing complex needs in a diverse community’; Person centred approaches; Crisis Care etc.

Questions and discussion

Michel Lilley (My Time); Grazina Berry, Joe Redmond (RF); Suman Fernando; Jenny Newton (Chair)

11.30 AM to 12.45 PM

SERVICE USER LED SERVICES

Mind in Camden presentation

Minor tranquillizer Service (REST) & Hearing Voices Network (HVN)?

Questions and discussion Melanie Davis (Mind in Camden), Mark Schamely, and others.

[BREAK FOR LUNCH]

2.00 PM TO 3.30 PM

MENTAL HEALTH RESEARCH

National Survivor User Network (NSUN) presentation:

- Though whose eyes – Survivor Research

Questions and discussion: Jayasree Kalathil, Naomi James (NSUN)

3.30 PM TO 5.00 PM

ISSUES OF ‘RACE’ AND CULTURE

Professor Suman Fernando talking about issues for BME people in UK and problems in the Third World from the globalization of (western) psychiatry.

Book launch

Mental Health Worldwide; Culture, Globalization and Development (2014) by Suman Fernando

6.00 PM TO 7.30 PM

FILM :

‘Whose mind is it anyway? John’s story’ (Documentary about sectioning and compulsory treatment of a black patient in a London Hospital).

Discussion on ‘sectioning’ and ‘race’ issues facilitated by Suman Fernando.

To register: Follow link and scroll to Thursday 23 October

<http://www.londonmet.ac.uk/faculties/faculty-of-social-sciences-and-humanities/events/london-met-connect/>