

Hospitality & Society

Call for contributions

Hospitality & Society is an international multidisciplinary social sciences journal focusing on academic perspectives on hospitality and addresses all aspects of hospitality's connections with wider social and cultural processes and structures.

Aims and Scope

- To consider issues associated with hospitality leading to its advancement and understanding, including developing new approaches to the study of hospitality.
- To serve as a multidisciplinary forum encouraging interdisciplinarity with contributors coming from a wide variety of disciplinary bases
- To be international in scope and inclusive in its coverage addressing hospitality from the macro to the micro level.

Article submissions

Articles should be 6-9000 words long but can be longer in exceptional cases.

The journal will publish empirical and conceptual research articles, state-of-the-art reviews discussion papers, shorter research notes, viewpoints and other reports should be up to 1,000 words long and include both a description and a critical analysis. The Journal welcomes reviewers at all stages of their careers to write single book reviews (c. 800 words in length) and multiple book reviews of up to three books (c. 2,500 words in length).

Article submissions in English are required, although this policy may be reviewed once the journal is fully established.

Submission Guidelines

Please read our Notes for Contributors which can be found at:

<http://www.intellectbooks.co.uk/page/index,name=journalresources/>

All submissions should adhere to Intellect's Style Guide which can also be found at

<http://www.intellectbooks.co.uk/page/index,name=journalresources/>

Please contact the editors for further queries and for submission.

Email: hospitalityandsociety@googlemail.com

Co-editors

Paul Lynch
Edinburgh Napier University
P.Lynch@napier.ac.uk

Alison McIntosh
University of Waikato
mcintosh@waikato.ac.nz

Jennie Germann Molz
College of the Holy Cross
jmolz@holycross.edu

Editor Emeritus

Conrad Lashley
Stenden University of Applied Sciences, Netherlands
conradlashley@aol.com

Controversies and Reviews Editor

Peter Lugosi
Oxford Brookes University
plugosi@brookes.ac.uk