

Christopher and Logan cycle Britain's Water for Burkina's Water

The challenge: 250 km cycle in two days, touring Britain's aquifers, 12th—13th Dec.

The cause: Friends in Action, who have been in operation in rural Burkina Faso since 2005 drilling clean water wells

Christopher Barry (GEES) and Logan Mills are setting out to cycle from Bristol to Birmingham on a route that crosses 5 of Britain's 6 major water-providing rocks to support the drilling of clean drinking water wells in rural Burkina Faso by Christian development charity Friends in Action.

Read more and sponsor at:
justgiving.com/ChristopherJBarry/OR friendsinaction.org.uk/or in person

Friends in Action drilling

