

New Perspectives

Interdisciplinary Journal of Central & East European Politics and International Relations

www.newperspectives.iir.cz

Call For Papers: Now Open!

New Perspectives provides a new forum for interdisciplinary insight into Central and East European (CEE) politics & international relations (broadly understood). We seek to publish original, interpretive research that is methodologically systematic and reflexive, theoretically innovative and empirically groundbreaking.

New Perspectives is looking for submissions which address political aspects of regional affairs and their connections to the wider world, from the fields of: International Relations, Security Studies and International Political Sociology; International Political Economy; Geography; Sociology; Anthropology; History; Cultural Studies and Legal Studies. If you have a good interpretive empirical or theoretical paper on CEE, we want to see it.

We interpret the borders of 'Central and Eastern Europe' broadly and therefore also welcome submissions on issues relating to e.g. Russia, Germany and the Balkans as well as the areas more commonly described as CEE. New Perspectives operates a rigorous peer review process, is listed in both SCOPUS and JSTOR and is published by the Institute of International Relations in Prague. We offer authors a professional service, editorial support and fast, 3 Month turnaround time.

Send all submissions to Editor-in-Chief Benjamin Tallis at tallis@iir.cz