New Perspectives is published by the Institute of International Relations in Prague and provides a new forum for interdisciplinary insight into CEE Politics & IR, broadly understood. We seek to publish original, interpretive research that is methodologically systematic and reflexive, theoretically innovative and compelling, or empirically groundbreaking. Backed by an Editorial Board comprised of leading scholars in their respective fields, we encourage submissions that address political aspects of regional affairs (and their connections to the wider world) from the fields of: International Relations, Political Science, Security Studies and International Political Sociology; International Political Economy; Geography; Sociology; Anthropology; History; Cultural Studies and Legal Studies.
