

Penn Nursing Renfield Foundation Award for Global Women’s Health 2016 Nomination Submission Form

In 2012, Penn Nursing received a $1.5 million investment from the Beatrice Renfield Foundation to endow the Penn Nursing Renfield Foundation Award for Global Women’s Health. The award supports leaders, advocates and activists who work to address pressing challenges facing women and women’s health around the world today.

Award: $100,000 unrestricted grant

Awardee Criteria: The award recognizes recent and/or significant advances in the improvement of the health of women through new scientific discoveries, the provision of services, changes in policy and practice and/or raising visibility. Nominees should be individuals whose work has resulted in significant change/improvement for women or has the potential to be transformative in the near future.

Selection process: Awardee will be selected and notified in 2015 and the prize will be presented to the awardee in Philadelphia in April 2016.

Form must be completed in its entirety (4 pages) for nominee to be considered for this award.

1. Name of nominator: _____
Title and Organization of nominator: _____
Email of nominator: _____
Phone number of nominator: _____

2. Name of nominee: _____
Primary Title and Organization of nominee: _____

3. Select a category that best reflects this nominee and their work.
 Research/Academia Nonprofit/Clinical Care Government/Policy

4. Please describe why you would consider the nominee a demonstrated leader in improving women's health particularly in one of the following areas: (maximum of 500 words)

- Forging innovative solutions to promote the health of women and girls, partnering with them to manage symptoms of health-related conditions, and improve their quality of life across the lifespan.
- Advocating for policies and/or programs that improve the lives and health of women by illuminating social injustices, conserving or improving environmental resources, or reducing violence and discrimination against women and girls;
- Improving the lives and health of women by empowering women to lead their institutions, communities and nations as well as their homes;

(maximum of 500 words)

5. Please describe how this nominee's work has significantly improved the lives and health of women. (maximum of 500 words)

- 6. Please describe how this nominee and their work have increased the public's recognition and understanding of issues that impact the health and lives of women and girls. (maximum of 500 words)

Submit completed form to: Fax: 215 573-9479, email: catherid@nursing.upenn.edu, or mail: Office of Institutional Advancement, Penn Nursing, 418 Curie Boulevard, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

Please submit your nominations by 5 pm (EST) on March 20, 2015.