

New research PhD studentships for October 2015

Kingston and St George's Joint Faculty of Health, Social Care and Education is delighted to participate in the doctoral studentship programme being offered by Kingston University for students to commence in October 2015.

Kingston University is now offering 35 prestigious research studentships to students who wish to study for a full-time PhD beginning in 2015-16 (part-time studentships are not available). Funding is at Home/EU level for three years only. Applications are via the Kingston Graduate School <http://www.kingston.ac.uk/research/research-degrees/funding/phd-studentships-2015/>

Information on Kingston and St George's Joint Faculty preferred topics for applications with supervisor contact details can be found on the website <http://www.healthcare.ac.uk> on our research degrees pages or email catherine.berryman@sgul.kingston.ac.uk.

We encourage all those interested in these studentships to contact and speak to the principal supervisor before applying to the Kingston University Graduate School.

Closing date is 20 March 2015 - mid-night.

Read more about our research at <http://www.healthcare.ac.uk/research/>

In the 2014 HEFCE Research Excellence Framework, 74% of our Faculty research was judged as world leading or internationally excellent (4* and 3*), and the remainder as internationally significant. Our parent Universities ranked as 4th (St George's University of London) and 75th (Kingston University) out of 128 in global research impact.