

Dissent and the Representation of War

SATURDAY 16 MAY 2015

VENUE: DR WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY, 14 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0AR

9.45am

Registration and coffee

10.10am

Welcome

10.15–11.05am

Lecture 1

'Dissent and British Opposition to the War of American Independence'

Professor Stephen Conway (UCL)

11.10am–12.00pm

Lecture 2

'Quaker Pacifism, African Warfare, and the Case against the Slave Trade'

Professor Brycchan Carey (Kingston)

12.05–1.05pm

Lecture 3

'War Versus Universal Benevolence: Richard Price and His Influence'

Dr Rémy Duthille (Bordeaux Montaigne)

1.05–2.15pm

Sandwich lunch

2.15–3.05pm

Lecture 4

"'The energy of those principles that shake Europe to the centre": The French Revolution and Welsh Dissent'

Dr Mary-Ann Constantine (Wales)

3.10–4.00pm

Lecture 5

'Our Man in Spain: Henry Crabb Robinson as War Correspondent for The Times during the Peninsular War (1808–1809)'

Professor Karen Racine (Guelph)

4–4.45pm

Tea

Conference fee: £10 (£4 students), payable on the door. Please register by 1 May 2015 by email to conference@dwlib.co.uk, stating any dietary requirements for the sandwich lunch.

Dr Williams's Library telephone: 020 7387 3727

www.english.qmul.ac.uk/drwilliams/

THE ELEVENTH ONE-DAY CONFERENCE OF THE
Dr Williams's Centre for Dissenting Studies, a collaboration between the School of English and Drama,
Queen Mary University of London, and Dr Williams's Library.

Dr Williams's Centre
for Dissenting Studies

