

High five for volunteers!

Conference exploring the role of volunteering in cultural venues, with a focus on volunteers who work with children and young people

Wednesday 10 June 2015

9:30am - 4:00pm

Tullie House Museum and Art Gallery, Carlisle

Programme

9:30-10:00am Registration - with refreshments

10:00-10:15am Welcome and introduction to the day

10:15-11:10am Keynote - Why am I here? Nourishing volunteers' motivations

Richard Gough, Volunteer Coordinator, Ironbridge Gorge Museum Trust

11:10-11:30am Questions followed by a Cumbria Snapshot case study

11:30-11:50am Refreshments and networking

11:50-12:30pm Keynote - Developing, supporting and mentoring volunteers to work with your organisation

Katey Boal, Learning Manager, Culloden, National Trust for Scotland

12:30-12:45pm Questions followed by a Cumbria Snapshot case study

12:45-1:30pm Lunch

1:30-1:50pm Keynote - Cumbria CVS – Supporting You to Succeed

Judith Holmshaw, County Volunteer Support Officer, Cumbria CVS

1:50-2:30pm Keynote - The 'if:Volunteering for wellbeing' project

Danielle Garcia, Volunteer Programme Manager, IWM North

2:30-3:00pm Questions followed by a case study

3:00-3:20pm Refreshments and networking

3:20-3:45pm Case study

3:45-4:00pm Round up and closing thoughts

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Lakeland
Learning
Network

Supported by Arts Council England through the Cumbria Museum Consortium