

Departamento de
Historia Moderna
y Contemporánea
Universidad Zaragoza

Competing Victimhoods in Spain and Italy

Humanities Institute, University College Dublin

Friday, 22 May 2015

ATTENDANCE IS FREE, ALL WELCOME!!!

9.00-9.30 Registration

9.30-9.45 Opening remarks by Dr Georg Grote, Head of UCD School of Languages and Literatures

9.45-11.15 Competing Victimhoods in Spain (chaired by Dr Tara Plunkett)

Dr José Luis Ledesma (Universidad Complutense Madrid), The Construction and Role of the Memory of ‘Nationalist Martyrs’ in Francoist Spain – and beyond

Dr Chiara Tedaldi (UCD and Universidad de Zaragoza), Hierarchies of Victimhood in Contemporary Spain

Dr Vincent Druliolle (Universidad Carlos III and Oxford University), The Struggle for Recognition of Spain’s Stolen Children and the Politics of Victimhood

11.15-11.30 Coffee Break

11.30-13.00 Keynote Address 1

Prof. Alison Ribeiro de Menezes (University of Warwick), Raising Spectres: Cultural Memory and the Necropolitics of Spain’s Civil-War Dead

13.00-14.00 Lunch Break

14.00-15.30 Competing Victimhoods in Italy (chaired by Dr Monica Francioso)

Emily Ryder (University of Glasgow), Padre, perdonali: The Role of Forgiveness within Discussions of Victims from the *anni di piombo

Dr Daniele Salerno (Università di Bologna), Necropics. Life Stories of Victims of Terrorist or Political Violence in Italian Television

Dr Andrea Hajek (University of Glasgow), Gendering the Affective Labour of Victims of State Violence in Contemporary Italy

15.30-17.00 Keynote Address 2

Dr Stefano Jossa (Royal Holloway), From Heroes to Victims (and back to Heroes): Italian Role-Models after WWI

17.00 Closing Remarks