

Health Research with Real Impact Conference 2015

Day 1 – How evidence synthesis can have a real impact

Wednesday 24th June 2015, Westleigh Conference Centre

Chair: Professor Soo Downe

- 09:00 – 09:30 Registration (Refreshments will be served)
- 09:30 – 09:40 Welcome, Introduction and aims for the day
Dr Nigel Harrison, Executive Dean, College of Health and Social Care
- 09:40 – 10:05 Mixed methods reviews – methodological guidance (Provisional title)
Professor Jennie Popay, Professor of Sociology and Public Health, Lancaster University
- 10:05 – 10:30 Cochrane overviews – what, why and how: lessons from the first Cochrane Stroke Group overview
Dr Alex Pollock, Research Fellow, Nursing, Midwifery & Allied Health Professions Research Unit, Glasgow Caledonian University
- 10:30 – 10:55 Qualitative metasynthesis and global maternity care policy and practice
Professor Soo Downe, Professor in Midwifery Studies, UCLan
- 10:55 – 11:15 Break (tea & coffee)
- 11:15 – 11:40 Qualitative reviews – methodological guidance
Dr Claire Glenton, Norwegian Knowledge Centre for the Health Services & Cochrane Effective Practice & Organisation of Care Group, Oslo
- 11:40 – 12:05 Applied Realism and Clinical Reasoning: a confluence of practice?
Dr Justin Jagosh, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Advancement in Realist Evaluation & Synthesis (CARES), University of Liverpool
- 12:05 Systematic Reviews of Depression in Stroke Patients (Provisional title)
Dr Maree Hackett, Reader in Epidemiology, The University of Sydney and UCLan
- 12:30 Lunch (Hot buffet will be served)

Chair: Professor Caroline Watkins

- 13:30 – 14:45 Masterclass – Realist Evaluation & Synthesis for Applied Health Research: an introduction
Dr Justin Jagosh, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Advancement in Realist Evaluation and Synthesis (CARES), University of Liverpool
- 14:45 – 15:00 Break (tea & coffee)
- 15:00 – 16:15 Masterclass – User involvement in systematic reviews
Dr Alex Pollock, Research Fellow, Nursing, Midwifery & Allied Health Professions Research Unit, Glasgow Caledonian University
- 16:15 – 16:30 Concluding remarks
Professor Caroline Watkins, Professor of Stroke & Older People's Care, UCLan